

PDF - POVERTY AND YOUTH RESTIVENESS IN NIGERIA AN EVELUATION OF THE BOKO HARAM - researchcub.info Over the years, Nigeria was experienced series of attacks, agitations, restiveness and blests ranging from diverse regions and localities. References are; hostage thing in the south-south region, the Niger Deltamilitancy crisis, the Boko Haram crisis in Northern Nigeria (which is the casestudy of this research work) etc. most restiveness of youths has often beendone under the puise of a ring or body, this makes their operational activitiesfast and broader. All these group exist in the diverse regions of the country, and this includes. The „OPC popularly known as the „Oduduwa peoples congress” called the Afenifere group. We can also find the „MASSOB known as the „movement for the actualization of sovereign state of biafra”, in the south-east region. In the south-south, we can find „MEND known as” themovement for emancipation of Niger Delta”, while the “Boko Haram lays siege ofthe Northern part of the country to mention a few.

Despite the fact that June 10, 2000 marked 50 years of oil exploration and production, and over $400 billion accrued to the Nigerian state in terms of revenue, Nigeria is still referred to as one of the poorest countries in the world. This often makes us to wonder how much of this revenue actually found its way into the region where this oil is produced as the areas of investment in infrastructure or the development of human capital such economic growth is yet to translate to economic development and an appreciable increase in the standard of living of the Nigerian masses. Notably, the economic, social and cultural rights of the people...
